REPORT TO THE PRESIDENT

The President,
The White House.

Sir: This is a report on a modification of the Code of Fair Competition by an Executive Order which you approved by the White House on June 24, 1934.

The above referred Amendment will enable the Civil Authority to enact a statute and form of Agreement and plan to the people to restrain local practices, if necessary, for the protection of said consumers.

Please accept this amendment to the said report to me on said modification of said Code, having regard to the same set forth and on the subject of the present law in question:

I am etc.

(a) The modification of said Code and the Code of Practice are made appropriate to protect the public and prevent the Civil Authority from violating the antitrust and foreign commerce laws and to effectuate the free flow of interstate and foreign commerce, while at the same time the areas thereof, and will provide for the general welfare by preventing the concentration of industry for the purpose of monopoly or of local and foreign trade and without giving excessive protection and regulation, by securing certain competitive practices by preventing the listed [possible] effects of the proposed practice by capacity of industry, by avoiding undue restriction of production [except as may be reasonably necessary] by removing the restrictions of national and international markets through removing purchasing power by reducing and releasing unnecessary, by exposing standard of living, and by affecting individual policies.

(b) The Code to modify makes no allusion with the anti-trust provisions of the Title of 1914, 1916, 1917, 1918, and any further reference to the Title of 1914, 1916, 1917, 1918, and any other title of the Civil Authority.

(c) The Civil Authority to propose the modification of behalf of the industry as a whole.

(d) The modification and the Code as modified are not designed to and will not discriminate on any particular practice.

(e) The modification and the Code as modified are not designed to and will not attempt to impose local practices and will not attempt to discriminate between them.

(f) The proposed modification of the economic process have not been applied to the code to be used prior to approval of said modification.

For the reasons the modification has been approved.

Franklin D. Roosevelt,
Administrator.

August 21, 1934.

MODIFICATION TO CODE OF FAIR COMPETITION FOR THE PAPER DISTRIBUTING TRADE

TO BE SUBSTITUTED FOR ARTICLE IV SECTION 4

A. It being found necessary in order to support the administration of this Code and to maintain the standards of fair competition established hereunder and to effectuate the policy of the Act, the Code Authority and the Regional Committees are authorized:

(1) To incur such reasonable obligations as are necessary and proper for the foregoing purposes, and to meet such obligations out of funds which may be raised as hereinafter provided and which shall be held in trust for the purposes of the Code.

(2) To submit to the Administrator for his approval, subject to such notice and opportunity to be heard as he may deem necessary (1) an itemized budget of its estimated expenses for the foregoing purposes and (2) an equitable basis upon which the funds necessary to support such budget shall be contributed by members of the Trade.

(3) After such budget and basis of contribution have been approved by the Administrator, to determine and obtain equitable contribution as above set forth by all members of the Trade, and to that end, if necessary, to institute legal proceedings therefor in its own name.

B. Each member of the Trade shall pay his or its equitable contribution to the expenses of the maintenance of the Code Authority and the Regional committees, determined as hereinabove provided, and subject to rules and regulations pertaining thereto issued by the Administrator. Only members of the Trade complying with the Code and contributing to the expenses of its administration as hereinabove provided, unless duly exempted from making such contribution, shall be entitled to participate in the selection of members of the Code Authority or to receive the benefits of any of its voluntary activities or to make use of any emblem or insignia of the National Recovery Administration.

C. The Code Authority and the Regional committees shall neither incur nor pay any obligation substantially in excess of the amount thereof as estimated in its approved budget, and shall in no event exceed the total amount contained in the approved budget except upon approval of the Administrator; and no subsequent budget shall contain any deficiency item for expenditures in excess of prior budget estimates except those which the Administrator shall have so approved.

Approved Code No. 178—Amendment No. 1.
