WASHINGTON, D.C.,
July 18, 1934.

REPORT TO THE PRESIDENT

The PRESIDENT,
The White House.

SIR: This is a report on the modification to the Code of Fair Competition for the Fur Dressing and Fur Dyeing Industry, on which a public hearing was held on April 27, 1934.

This modification provides that no member of this industry will perform services for a member of another industry or trade unless such member displays the Blue Eagle. This is a distinct aid to the Administration and enforcement of both this code and other related codes.

The Deputy Administrator in his final report to me on said modification of said code having found as herein set forth and on the basis of all the proceedings in this matter:

I find that:

(a) The modification of said code and the code as modified are well designed to promote the policies and purposes of Title I of the National Industrial Recovery Act including the removal of obstructions to the free flow of interstate and foreign commerce which tend to diminish the amount thereof, and will provide for the general welfare by promoting the organization of trade for the purpose of cooperative action of labor and management under adequate governmental sanction and supervision, by eliminating unfair competitive practices, by promoting the fullest possible utilization of the present productive capacity of industries, by avoiding undue restriction of production (except as may be temporarily required), by increasing the consumption of industrial and agricultural products through increasing purchasing power, by reducing and relieving unemployment, by improving standards of labor, and by otherwise rehabilitating industry.

(b) The code as modified complies in all respects with the pertinent provisions of said Title of said Act, including without limitation sub-section (a) of Section 3, sub-section (a) of Section 7 and sub-section (b) of Section 10 thereof.

(c) The modification and the Code as modified are not designed to and will not permit monopolies or monopolistic practices.

(d) The modification and the code as modified are not designed to and will not eliminate or oppress small enterprises and will not operate to discriminate against them.

(e) Those engaged in other steps of the economic process have not been deprived of the right to be heard prior to approval of said modification.

For these reasons this modification has been approved.

Respectfully,

HUGH S. JOHNSON,
Administrator.

JULY 18, 1934.

MODIFICATION TO CODE OF FAIR COMPETITION FOR THE FUR DRESSING AND FUR DYEING INDUSTRY

A new section to be known as Section 2, of Article IX:

(a) No member of this industry shall dress, dye or otherwise process fur skins for any member of another industry or trade operating under a code of fair competition which requires such member to operate under or stamp his goods with an N.R.A. insignia, label, or registry number unless the member of such other industry or trade represents that he is in full compliance with the approved code of fair competition, agreement, or license applicable to the member of such other industry or trade and unless the member of such other industry or trade is duly authorized to use the N.R.A. insignia, or label, or registry number provided for in such code of fair competition.

(b) Delivery of a certificate by the member of such other industry or trade that he, or it, is complying with the code, agreement, or license applicable to such member; the display by such member of the N.R.A. insignia, label, or registry number; the publication in a newspaper or periodical of general circulation of such certificate of compliance or N.R.A. insignia, label, or registry number, shall constitute a good and sufficient representation that such member is complying with the Code of Fair Competition for such other industry or trade.

(c) Upon application, or upon his own motion, the Administrator may grant exceptions or exemptions from the provisions hereof if it shall appear:

(1) That the member of such industry or trade is not subject to a code of fair competition, agreement, or license approved under the Act; or

(2) That compliance herewith would create undue hardship or would not tend to effectuate the purposes of this Code or the policy of the Act.

(d) No member of the industry shall make or cause to be presented or published any such representation which shall be false in any material particular.

Approved Code No. 161—Amendment No. 2.
