I. PURPOSE AND BILL SUMMARY

The purpose of H.R. 4531, the “7(a) Loan Agent Oversight Act”, is to require the Small Business Administration’s (SBA) Office of Credit Risk Management (OCRM) to submit an annual report to Congress regarding the performance of and risk associated with 7(a) loans generated through loan agent activity.

II. BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

H.R. 4531 was introduced by Rep. Dan Meuser (R-PA) and Rep. Dean Phillips (D-MN) on July 19, 2021 to improve SBA's reporting on loan agent and broker activity in the 7(a) Loan Guaranty Program (7(a) program). In February 2020, the Committee on Small Business held a hearing reviewing the management of SBA's Office of Credit Risk Management (OCRM),<sup>1</sup> which is responsible for the oversight of SBA lenders and its $120 billion business loan portfolios. During the hearing, OCRM's director testified that approximately 11 percent of the 7(a) loan portfolio was generated through loan agent activity, which in FY 2019, represented over 5,700 loans. The director also testified that SBA lacks a way to uniquely identify and systematically track loan agents, and instead relies on lender reviews to obtain information about each lender's agents and brokers.

Authorized by section 7(a) of the Small Business Act, the SBA's 7(a) program is the agency's flagship loan program. Private sector lenders (mostly banks and credit unions but also some non-depository lenders) originate commercial and working capital loans of up to $5 million to small businesses who cannot access credit elsewhere. SBA guarantees 50 to 90 percent of each 7(a) loan made, depending on loan characteristics, assuring the lender that if a borrower defaults on the loan, SBA will purchase the loan and the lender will receive an agreed-upon portion of the outstanding balance. SBA also administers several subprograms within the 7(a) program that offer streamlined and expedited loan procedures for different groups of borrowers, including the SBA Express, Export Express, and Community Advantage Pilot programs. Although these subprograms have their own distinguishing eligibility requirements, terms, and benefits, they operate under the 7(a) program's authorization. For the majority of 7(a) loans, SBA relies on lenders with delegated authority to process and service loans, and ensure borrowers meet the program's eligibility requirements. In FY2020, SBA approved 42,302 7(a) loans for a total of over $22.5 billion, with an average loan size of $533,076.

Increased risk to SBA's business loan programs introduced by loan agents and brokers has been consistently cited by SBA's OIG as a top management and performance challenge facing the agency, most recently in FY 2021.<sup>2</sup> In September 2015, OIG published an audit report which found though SBA strengthened some controls over loan agent participation in the business loan programs, further improvements were necessary to ensure program integrity and mitigate the risk of fraud and loss.<sup>3</sup> For example, OCRM's loan agent oversight activities remain limited to lender on-site reviews, and according to OCRM officials cited in the September 2015 OIG audit report, the on-site review process could not effectively evaluate loan agent activity and performance. The report included a recommendation that SBA implement a process using permissible information to uniquely identify loan agents involved with SBA lending programs for tracking purposes.

<sup>3</sup> U.S. SMALL BUS. ADMIN OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GEN., AUDIT REPORT: SBA NEEDS TO IMPROVE ITS OVERSIGHT OF LOAN AGENTS, REPORT, (Sep. 25, 2015), https://www.sba.gov/sites/default/files/oig/Report\_15-16\_SBA\_Needs\_to\_Improve\_Its\_Oversight\_of\_Loan\_Agents.pdf.

Since 2005, OIG has investigated at least 22 cases with confirmed loan agent fraud totaling at least $335 million. OIG's analysis determined that 7(a) loans made in which a lender paid a referral fee to a loan agent defaulted at a rate 28 percent higher than loans where no referral fee was reported. Furthermore, OIG identified that agents have targeted multiple SBA lenders, who would be unaware of loan agents' past performance or activity with other lenders. OIG's analysis found that one loan agent that fraudulently originated $90 million in SBA loans received compensation from at least 19 different lenders. The Committee agrees with OIG that though lenders bear primary responsibility for monitoring their agents, only SBA is positioned to aggregate loan agent portfolios, evaluate their performance, and inform lenders and policymakers about concerning program risks or trends. Companion legislation (H.R. 4481, the "Small Business 7(a) Loan Agent Transparency Act") would require OCRM to compile loan agent data using a registration system that assigns each agent a unique identifier. H.R. 4531 requires a report to Congress regarding such data, including an analysis of the performance, cost, and risk associated with loan agent activity in the 7(a) program.

III. HEARINGS

On February 5, 2020, the Committee on Small Business held a management review hearing on OCRM,<sup>4</sup> which is responsible for conducting oversight of the agency's business loan programs. This hearing continued the Committee's interest in OCRM's activities and followed the enactment of the Small Business 7(a) Lending Oversight Reform Act of 2018, which codified OCRM. During the hearing, OCRM's director testified that SBA lacks a way to uniquely identify and systematically track loan agents, and instead relies on lender reviews to obtain information about loan agents.

IV. COMMITTEE CONSIDERATION

The Committee on Small Business met in open session, with a quorum being present, on July 29, 2021 and ordered H.R. 4531 reported to the House of Representatives. During the markup, no amendments were offered.

V. COMMITTEE VOTES

Clause 3(b) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives requires the Committee to list the recorded votes on the motion to report legislation and amendments thereto. The Committee approved by voice vote to favorably report H.R. 4531 to the House of Representatives at 10:33 a.m.

Section 1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the “7(a) Loan Agent Oversight Act.”

Section 2. Requirements for 7(a) agents

This section requires OCRM to submit to Congress an annual report regarding the performance, cost, and risk associated with loans generated through loan agent activity.

VII. CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET COST ESTIMATE

Pursuant to 3(c)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee adopts as its own the cost estimate prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974. The Committee has requested but not received from the Director of the Congressional Budget Office a cost estimate for the Committee’s provisions.

VIII. NEW BUDGET AUTHORITY, ENTITLEMENT AUTHORITY, AND TAX EXPENDITURES

Pursuant to clause 3(c)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 308(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee provides the following opinion and estimate with respect to new budget authority, entitlement authority, and tax expenditures. While the Committee has not received an estimate of new budget authority contained in the cost estimate prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to Sec. 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee does not believe that there will be any additional costs attributable to this legislation. Law 111–139 or the most recent Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance.
