

REPORT

Of the Committee on Pensions and Revolutionary Claims on the case of Ruamah Williams.

DECEMBER 16, 1821.

Read, and ordered to lie on the table.

FEBRUARY 13, 1822.

Again referred to the Committee on Pensions, &c.

FEBRUARY 19, 1822.

Reported again and committed.

DECEMBER 12, 1822.

Printed by order of the House of Representatives.

The Committee on Pensions and Revolutionary Claims, to whom was referred the petition of Amariah Williams, and Ruamah, his wife, have had the same under consideration, and

REPORT THEREON :

The petitioners state that they had a contest with a British soldier, near Plattsburg; the cause of which they state to be, that the soldier attempted to ill treat the said Ruamah; that they, the petitioners, took the soldier prisoner, and delivered him to the troops of the United States: that, in said contest, she, the said Ruamah, was injured by her great exertion to take said soldier prisoner; that she is in a debilitated state of body; that the petitioners are in low circumstances; and they pray for some relief.

The Committee further report, that this case of the petitioners is not admissible, and therefore submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That the prayer of the petitioners be not granted.

