TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Fourth Auditor's Office, December 13, 1855.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit an abstract from the books of this office of balances which have been due to the United States three years or more prior to the 30th of June, 1855, made up in compliance with the 2d section of the act of March 3, 1809, entitled "An act to amend the several acts for the establishment and regulation of the Treasury and Naval Departments."

I have the honor to be, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
A. O. DAYTON.

E. WHITTLESEY, Esq.,
Comptroller of the Treasury.

List of balances remaining on the books of the Fourth Auditor of the Treasury Department, due from individuals more than three years prior to the 30th June, 1855.

Names and rank.	Residence.	Amount.	Remarks of the Solicitor of the Treasury.
John M. Bell, formerly navy-agent -----	New Orleans-----	$103 70	Suit ordered by Solicitor for $7,554 97; but before proceedings were commenced the balance was reduced to $103 70. The accounting officer reporting this reduction also stated that certain vouchers were still suspended, on account of informalities, which would probably be remedied, when there would be a balance due to Mr. Bell. Under these circumstances, suit has never been commenced.
