- “(III) The Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Secretary of Health and Human Services and in coordination with the heads of such other Federal agencies as may be appropriate, shall place the contact information of the national human trafficking hotline at each port of entry.”

Purpose and Summary

Introduced by Rep. Hakeem Jeffries (D-NY) on March 21, 2021, H.R. 7181, the “Human Trafficking Prevention Act of 2022,” would provide for the posting of the contact information for the National Human Trafficking Hotline in a visible place in all federal buildings, and in the restrooms of all U.S. airplanes, airports, trains, train stations, buses, bus stations, and ports of entry, so that any victim, or anyone who notices a potential victim of human trafficking, knows where to turn for help.

Background and Need for the Legislation

Human trafficking is the crime of exploiting a person for compelled labor, services, or commercial sex acts. It is a multi-billion-dollar, global criminal industry that victimizes 24.9 million people around the world.¹ Division A of the Victims of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act of 2000 (P.L. 106–386), known as the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 (TVPA), established U.S. antitrafficking policy to (1) prevent trafficking; (2) protect trafficking victims; and (3) prosecute and punish traffickers.

Identification of trafficking victims is a critical first step in addressing the problem of human trafficking. It is necessary to protect victims and ensure that they receive the assistance and services they need to be able to break free and begin to rebuild their lives. It is also necessary in order to identify and prosecute the traffickers.

In 2020, 11,193 instances of potential human trafficking were reported to the United States National Human Trafficking Hotline² (the Hotline)—a resource that connects victims and survivors of human trafficking with critical support and services and facilitates the reporting of suspected trafficking situations to the appropriate authorities. The Hotline, which is a privately-operated non-profit that receives funding from the Department of Health and Human Services, provides a toll-free phone line and SMS text lines that are available 24 hours a day, 365 days per year. Help is available in English, Spanish, and in more than 200 additional languages through on-call interpreters.

But as staggering as the number of reported trafficking cases is, it represents just some of the instances of trafficking that occur every day, as human trafficking is an underreported crime. Traffickers use a variety of techniques to exert power over their victims and prevent them from seeking help. Trafficking victims are often isolated from the outside world by their traffickers, who rarely leave victims alone long enough for them to seek out the resources they need to be able to break free. Traffickers also rely on our transportation system, including buses, planes, and trains, to perpetrate their offenses. And though human trafficking is distinct from the crime of human smuggling, some human traffickers transport their victims into the United States through ports of entry.

The Human Trafficking Prevention Act of 2022 will assist with the identification and rescue of trafficking victims by requiring that the contact information for the Hotline be posted in all federal buildings and in the restrooms of all U.S. airplanes, airports, trains, train stations, buses, bus stations, and ports of entry, so that any victim, or anyone who notices a potential victim of human trafficking, will know where and how to get the help that they need. Spreading awareness of the Hotline is key to connecting victims and potential victims to services, including law enforcement, at the moment when they are most vulnerable, and when they are most likely to have the ability to reach out and ask for help.

Hearings

For the purposes of clause 3(c)(6) of House rule XIII, the following hearing was used to develop H.R. 7181: “Oversight of Federal Efforts to Combat Human Trafficking,” held on April 27, 2022, before the Subcommittee on Crime, Terrorism, and Homeland Security. The Subcommittee heard testimony from:

- Evelyn Chumbow, Greater Washington, DC Area
- Shamere McKenzie, Greater Washington, DC Area
- Cristian Eduardo, Greater New York City Area
- Terry FitzPatrick, Director, Alliance to End Slavery and Trafficking (ATTEST)
- Martina E. Vandenberg, Founder and President, The Human Trafficking Legal Center
- Jacqueline Aluotto, Co-Founder, No Trafficking Zone
- Sheriff Mark Daniels, Cochise County, AZ
- Jessica M. Vaughn, Director of Policy Studies, Center for Immigration Studies

The hearing explored efforts to respond to many issues surrounding human trafficking, including prevention of human trafficking; protection of victims and survivors; prosecution of traffickers and those who support their efforts; and the need to end the criminalization of victims who commit crimes that result from their victimization and ensure access to services through non-punitive systems. The witnesses included survivors of human trafficking, as well as experts and advocates.

Committee Consideration

On June 15, 2022, the Committee met in open session and ordered the bill, H.R. 7181, favorably reported with an amendment, by a voice vote, a quorum being present.

Committee Votes

In compliance with clause 3(b) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee advises that no rollcall votes occurred during the Committee's consideration of H.R. 7181.

Committee Oversight Findings

In compliance with clause 3(c)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee advises that the findings and recommendations of the Committee, based on oversight activities under clause 2(b)(1) of rule X of the Rules of the House of Representatives, are incorporated in the descriptive portions of this report.

Committee Estimate of Budgetary Effects

Pursuant to clause 3(d)(1) of House rule XIII, the Committee adopts as its own the cost estimate prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974.

New Budget Authority and Congressional Budget Office Cost Estimate

Pursuant to clause 3(c)(2) of House rule XIII and section 308(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, and pursuant to clause (3)(c)(3) of House rule XIII and section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee sets forth, with respect to the bill, H.R. 7181, the following analysis and estimate prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office:

H.R. 7181, Human Trafficking Prevention Act of 2022
As ordered reported by the House Committee on the Judiciary on June 15, 2022
By Fiscal Year, Millions of Dollars	2022	2022-2027	2022-2032
Direct Spending (Outlays)	0	0	0
Revenues	0	0	0
Increase or Decrease (-) in the Deficit	0	0	0
Spending Subject to Appropriation (Outlays)	0	*	*
Statutory pay-as-you-go procedures apply?	No	Mandate Effects
Increases on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2033?	No	Contains intergovernmental mandate?	No
		Contains private-sector mandate?	No

* = between zero and $500,000.

H.R. 7181 would direct the Department of Transportation (DOT) to coordinate with owners and operators of transportation services to post contact information for the national human trafficking hotline in the restrooms of every aircraft, over-the-road bus, and passenger train operating in the United States as well as in all restrooms in every U.S. airport, bus station, and train station. The bill also would require the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) to post the hotline's contact information at all 328 U.S. ports of entry.

CBO expects that DOT would need two additional full-time employees to coordinate with the applicable transportation providers and that DHS would install two signs at each port of entry at a cost of about $60 per sign. On that basis, CBO estimates that the total cost to DOT and DHS would be less than $500,000 over the 2022–2027 period. Any spending would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Robert Reese. The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Director of Budget Analysis.

Duplication of Federal Programs

Pursuant to clause 3(c)(5) of House rule XIII, no provision of H.R. 7181 establishes or reauthorizes a program of the federal government known to be duplicative of another federal program.

Performance Goals and Objectives

The Committee states that pursuant to clause 3(c)(4) of House rule XIII, H.R. 7181 would help to identify and protect trafficking victims by informing them of the National Human Trafficking Hotline and empowering them to contact the Hotline when they are most vulnerable and most likely to be able to reach out for help. Connecting victims to the Hotline will give law enforcement greater opportunities to rescue victims and potential victims, and it will help link victims to the services and support they need to escape from traffickers and rebuild their lives.

Advisory on Earmarks

In accordance with clause 9 of House rule XXI, H.R. 7181 does not contain any congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined in clause 9(d), 9(e), or 9(f) of House rule XXI.

Section-by-Section Analysis

The following discussion describes the bill as reported by the Committee.

Section 1. Short Title. This section sets forth the short title of the bill as the “Human Trafficking Prevention Act of 2022.”

Section 2. Posting of National Human Trafficking Phone Number in Certain Restrooms. This section would amend section 107(b)(1)(B) of the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 (enacted as division A of the Victims of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act of 2000, 22 U.S.C. § 7105(b)(1)(B)(ii)) to require the Secretary of Transportation, in consultation with the Secretary of Health and Human Services, to coordinate with the owners and operators of aircraft, airports, buses, bus stations, passenger trains, and passenger railroad stations to place the contact information for the National Human Trafficking Hotline (including options to contact the Hotline such as through phone, text, or TYY) in the restrooms of each aircraft, airports, buses, bus stations, passenger trains, and passenger railroad station operating in the United States, and it requires the posting of that contact information in a visible place in all federal buildings.

(ii) SAFETY.—While investigating and prosecuting suspected traffickers, Federal law enforcement officials described in clause (i) shall endeavor to make reasonable efforts to protect the safety of trafficking victims, including taking measures to protect trafficked persons and their family members from intimidation, threats of reprisals, and reprisals from traffickers and their associates.

(iii) CONTINUATION OF PRESENCE.—The Secretary shall permit an alien described in clause (i) who has filed a civil action under section 1595 of title 18, United States Code, to remain in the United States until such action is concluded. The Attorney General and the Secretary of Health and Human Services, in consultation with the Secretary of Labor, shall provide training to State and local officials to improve the identification and protection of such victims.

(B) TRAINING COMPONENTS.—Training under this paragraph shall include—

(II) appropriate procedures to report information that any such personnel may acquire about possible cases of trafficking in persons; and

(iv) a discussion clarifying that an individual who knowingly solicits or patronizes a commercial sex act from a person who was a minor (consistent with section 1591(c) of title 18, United States Code) or was subject to force, fraud, or coercion is guilty of an offense under chapter 77 of title 18, United States Code, and is a party to a human trafficking offense.

(d) CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in subsection (c) shall be construed as creating any private cause of action against the United States or its officers or employees.

(e) PROTECTION FROM REMOVAL FOR CERTAIN CRIME VICTIMS.—

(5) STATUTORY CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this section, or in the amendments made by this section, shall be construed as prohibiting the Secretary of Homeland Security from instituting removal proceedings under section 240 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1229a) against an alien admitted as a nonimmigrant under section 101(a)(15)(T)(i) of that Act, as added by subsection (e), for conduct committed after the alien's admission into the United States, or for conduct or a condition that was not disclosed to the Secretary of Homeland Security prior to the alien's admission as a nonimmigrant under such section 101(a)(15)(T)(i).

(f) ASSISTANCE FOR UNITED STATES CITIZENS AND LAWFUL PERMANENT RESIDENTS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of Health and Human Services and the Attorney General, in consultation with the Secretary of Labor, shall establish a program to assist United States citizens and aliens lawfully admitted for permanent residence (as defined in section 101(a)(20) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(20))) who are victims of severe forms of trafficking. In determining the assistance that would be most beneficial for such victims, the Secretary and the Attorney General shall consult with nongovernmental organizations that provide services to victims of severe forms of trafficking in the United States.

Dear Chairman Nadler:

I write concerning H.R. 7181, the Human Trafficking Prevention Act of 2022. There are certain provisions in this legislation that fall within the Rule X jurisdiction of the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure.

In order to expedite floor consideration of H.R. 7181, the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure agrees to forgo action on the bill. However, this is conditional on our mutual understanding that forgoing consideration of the bill would not prejudice the Committee with respect to the appointment of conferees or to any future jurisdictional claim over the subject matters contained in the bill or similar legislation that fall within the Committee's Rule X jurisdiction. I also request that you urge the Speaker to name members of this Committee to any conference committee which is named to consider such provisions.

Please place a copy of this letter and your response acknowledging our jurisdictional interest into the bill report to be filed by the Committee on the Judiciary and in the Congressional Record during consideration of H.R. 7181 on the House floor.

Sincerely,

Peter A. DeFazio
