UNITED STATES

OF THE

COMPTROLLER OF THE TREASURY

TRANSMITTED

A REPORT OF THE SECRETARY

OF THE TREASURY, IN ANSWER TO A RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE, PASSED SEPTEMBER 30, 1853.

JANUARY 7, 1854.

AND, BY ORDER OF THE SENATE,

WASHINGTON

PRINTED BY GALE & WELLS

1854

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Comptroller's Office, Jan. 6, 1824.

SIR: In compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress, passed the 3d of March, 1809, entitled "An act further to amend the several acts for the establishment and regulation of the Treasury, War, and Navy Departments;" and the act passed the 3d of March, 1817, entitled "An act to provide for the prompt settlement of public accounts;" I have the honor to transmit, herewith, a statement of the accounts which have remained unsettled, or on which balances appear to have been due more than three years, prior to the 30th September last, on the books of the Second Auditor of the Treasury; together with a copy of his letter which accompanied said statement to this Department.

With considerations of high respect,

I have the honor to be,

Your obedient servant,

JOS. ANDERSON.

Comptroller.

The Hon. HENRY CLAY,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Second Auditor's Office, 5th Jan. 1824.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit you, herewith, a statement of the accounts which have remained unsettled, or on which balances appear to have been due more than three years, prior to the 30th September, 1823, as appears by the books of this Office, furnished in pursuance of the second section of the act of Congress, passed the 3d March, 1809, entitled "An act further to amend the several acts for the establishment and regulation of the Treasury, War, and Navy Departments."

It being also required, by an act of Congress of the 3d March, 1817, entitled "An act to provide for the prompt settlement of public accounts," that a list of officers shall be exhibited, who have failed to settle their accounts for advances made within the year terminating on the 30th September, 1822, I have the honor to state, that, in this office, not a single officer has failed to make the settlement required by law.

I am, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

WM. LEE.

JOSEPH ANDERSON, Esq.

Comptroller of the Treasury.
