

GRAND RONDE RESERVATION ACT AMENDMENT OF 2023

NOVEMBER 3, 2023.—Committed to the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union and ordered to be printed

Mr. WESTERMAN, from the Committee on Natural Resources, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany H.R. 1722]

[Including cost estimate of the Congressional Budget Office]

The Committee on Natural Resources, to whom was referred the bill (H.R. 1722) to amend the Grand Ronde Reservation Act, and for other purposes, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon without amendment and recommends that the bill do pass.

PURPOSE OF THE LEGISLATION

The purpose of H.R. 1722 is to amend the Grand Ronde Reservation Act, and for other purposes.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

H.R. 1722 would amend the Grand Ronde Reservation Act to reflect that the Grand Ronde tribe's extinguishment of land claims against the United States only applies to an 84-acre parcel of land, known as the Thompson Strip. The bill would also add a gaming prohibition for any future land awarded as part of a land claims settlement and prohibits the use of money received as part of a land claim settlement to purchase land for gaming purposes pursuant to the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act.¹

The Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community of Oregon were among several tribes in Western Oregon that entered into treaties with the United States in the 1850s.² In 1857, President James Buchanan established the Grand Ronde Reservation.³ At the time, the reservation was more than 60,000 acres. Today, the Grand Ronde are treated by the federal government as a single tribe for federal purposes such as the delivery of services and benefits.

In 1988, Congress enacted the Grand Ronde Reservation Act.⁴ This Act and subsequent acts created a reservation for the tribe mostly within the boundaries of the former 1857 Grand Ronde Reservation in Polk and Yamhill Counties, Oregon.⁵ Today, the tribe has a total of 10,311 acres of trust land. According to the tribe, all but 259 acres of these lands are forested, and the tribe is actively engaged in timber management. The non-forested trust parcels host tribal buildings and housing, a casino, and other infrastructure.⁶

On October 31, 1988, the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) discovered that several surveying errors had been made along the southeast boundary of the Tribe's reservation. On the realization of the error, the BLM contacted the tribe to correct the situation. In 1994, the tribe and BLM agreed to a land transfer, which Congress included as part of a larger Indian technical corrections bill.⁷

While the tribe received compensatory lands under this law, it was determined that the "extinguishment of claims" phrase used in the bill included all, and potential future, land claims within the entire State of Oregon. The tribe contends that this was done in error and not intended to bar it from other potential land claims. H.R. 1722 would amend current law to reflect that the tribe is only barred from bringing a future land claim on the 84-acre Thompson Strip parcel.

COMMITTEE ACTION

H.R. 1722 was introduced on March 22, 2023, by Rep. Andrea Salinas (D-OR). The bill was referred to the Committee on Natural Resources, and within the Committee to the Subcommittee on Indian and Insular Affairs. On June 7, 2023, the Subcommittee on Indian and Insular Affairs held a hearing on the bill. On July 26, 2023, the Committee on Natural Resources met to consider the bill. The Subcommittee on Indian and Insular Affairs was discharged from further consideration of H.R. 1722 by unanimous consent. The bill was then ordered favorably reported to the House of Representatives by a roll call vote of 32 yeas to 0 nays, as follows:

Section 3. Treaty rights of federally recognized tribes

Section 3 provides that the Act shall not be construed to modify any treaty right of any Indian tribe.

COMMITTEE OVERSIGHT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Regarding clause 2(b)(1) of rule X and clause 3(c)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Natural Resources’ oversight findings and recommendations are reflected in the body of this report.

COMPLIANCE WITH HOUSE RULE XIII AND CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET ACT

1. Cost of Legislation and the Congressional Budget Act. With respect to the requirements of clause 3(c)(2) and (3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and sections 308(a) and 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee has received the following estimate for the bill from the Director of the Congressional Budget Office:

H.R. 1722 would revise the tribal land claims of the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community in Oregon that were extinguished by the Grand Ronde Reservation Act. That act authorized the Department of the Interior (DOI) to provide 240 acres of land to the tribes. In exchange, the tribes relinquished their right to pursue claims to all other land within the state. H.R. 1722 would lower the amount of relinquished land to a specific 84-acre parcel, which would allow the tribes to acquire additional land in Oregon to which they have a valid claim.

Using information from DOI, CBO estimates that the agency would incur insignificant administrative costs to update documents related to the affected land. Any spending would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

H.R. 1722 would impose an intergovernmental mandate—as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA)—on the confederated tribes by prohibiting gaming on tribal land in Oregon. That prohibition would apply to land obtained by the tribe in a land claim settlement or purchased with funds from a settlement. Because gaming on such land is currently allowed under federal law, the proposed ban would be a mandate. However, because gaming does not occur now on the tribal land and the tribes have no plans to begin gaming activities on those lands, the cost of the mandate would be small and below the threshold established in UMRA ($99 million in 2023, adjusted annually for inflation).

The bill contains no private-sector mandates as defined in UMRA.

The CBO staff contacts for this estimate are Julia Aman (for federal costs) and Rachel Austin (for mandates). The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Director of Budget Analysis.

PHILLIP L. SWAGEL,
Director, Congressional Budget Office.

2. General Performance Goals and Objectives. As required by clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII, the general performance goal or objective of this bill is to amend the Grand Ronde Reservation Act, and for other purposes.

EARMARK STATEMENT

This bill does not contain any Congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined under clause 9(e), 9(f), and 9(g) of rule XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives.

UNFUNDED MANDATES REFORM ACT STATEMENT

According to the Congressional Budget Office (CBO), H.R. 1722 would impose an intergovernmental mandate, as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA), on the confederated tribes by prohibiting gaming on tribal land in Oregon. The cost of the mandate, according to CBO, would be small and below the established threshold ($99 million in 2023, adjusted annually for inflation). The bill contains no private-sector mandates as defined in UMRA.

EXISTING PROGRAMS

Directed Rule Making. This bill does not contain any directed rule makings.

Duplication of Existing Programs. This bill does not establish or reauthorize a program of the federal government known to be duplicative of another program. Such program was not included in any report from the Government Accountability Office to Congress pursuant to section 21 of Public Law 111–139 or identified in the most recent Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance published pursuant to the Federal Program Information Act (Public Law 95–220, as amended by Public Law 98–169) as relating to other programs.

APPLICABILITY TO LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

The Committee finds that the legislation does not relate to the terms and conditions of employment or access to public services or accommodations within the meaning of section 102(b)(3) of the Congressional Accountability Act.

PREEMPTION OF STATE, LOCAL OR TRIBAL LAW

Any preemptive effect of this bill over state, local, or tribal law is intended to be consistent with the bill's purposes and text and the Supremacy Clause of Article VI of the U.S. Constitution.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW MADE BY THE BILL, AS REPORTED

In compliance with clause 3(e) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, changes in existing law made by the bill, as reported, are shown as follows (existing law proposed to be omitted is enclosed in black brackets, new matter is printed in italics, and existing law in which no change is proposed is shown in roman):
