BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

Judge W. Craig Broadwater was born on August 8, 1950 in Elk City, Oklahoma. He attended West Virginia University, where he earned his undergraduate and law degrees. He spent several years in private practice (1977 to 1983) until he was appointed as a state circuit judge for the First Judicial Circuit of West Virginia. He served in that capacity until his appointment in 1996 by President William J. Clinton to the Federal bench as a Judge on the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of West Virginia.

Judge Broadwater was also a decorated military officer. He began his career in the military in 1972 when he was commissioned in the United States Army. He served for two years on active duty as a Military Intelligence Officer and served a tour in Korea. In 1976, he continued his military service in the West Virginia Army National Guard as an Operational Detachment Executive Officer with C Company, 2d Battalion, 19th Special Forces Group (Airborne). During that time he rose to Battalion Commander and served in Haiti for Operation Uphold Democracy. He eventually rose to the rank of Brigadier General and, in 2003, served as the Deputy Director for the Center of Operations, Plans and Policy with the United States Special Operations Command in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. Later, he served in other capacities including as Commanding General, Joint Interagency Task Force-High Value Individuals, Multi-National Force-Iraq.

Upon his untimely death in 2006, Judge Broadwater was serving both as an active Federal judge and as Assistant Adjutant General for Installations and Homeland Security for the West Virginia Army National Guard. During his military service, he received over 20 major awards and decorations, including the Defense Superior Service Medal and the Bronze Star.

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

With respect to the requirement of clause 3(c)(3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee has received the enclosed cost estimate for S. 307 from the Director of the Congressional Budget Office:

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, March 18, 2011.

Hon. JOHN L. MICA,
Chairman, Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has reviewed S. 307, an act to designate the Federal building and United States Courthouse located at 217 West King Street in Martinsburg, West Virginia, as the “W. Craig Broadwater Federal Building and United States Courthouse,” as ordered reported by the House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure on March 16, 2011.

CBO estimates that enacting this legislation would have no significant impact on the Federal budget and would not affect direct spending or revenues; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply. S. 307 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments. If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Matthew Pickford.

Sincerely,

DOUGLAS W. ELMENDORF,
Director.
